A home in the heart of Three Legged Cross

INTRODUCTION

Message From Our Team

Welcome to our Autumn Newsletter! We have enjoyed a lovely mix of activities and entertainment over recent weeks, with plenty of opportunities for residents to get involved in the things they enjoy. Music has featured regularly, with visits from Sue and the Flamin Ukes, as well as a performance from Angus which saw residents joining in with instruments of their own.

We have also been busy baking, flower arranging and keeping in touch with our pen pals at Rowan Park Care Home. Our fortnightly visits from therapy dog Claude continue to be something residents can look forward to as well.

We hope you enjoy catching up on some of our recent activities and seeing what residents have been getting up to.

RECENT ACTIVITIES

Lemon Shortbread

There was a lovely smell coming from our baking session as residents got busy making lemon zest shortbread biscuits.

Everyone enjoyed getting involved in making the biscuits, with the lemon zest adding a fresh twist to a traditional favourite. Of course, once the baking was finished, there was the opportunity to enjoy the results too.

Singing with Sue

Sue joined us for another musical afternoon, singing a selection of our favourite songs.

Familiar music always goes down well, giving residents the opportunity to listen, sing along and enjoy the songs they know and love. It was a relaxed afternoon with plenty of music for everyone to enjoy.

Visits from Claude

Our therapy dog Claude continues to visit us every fortnight.

His regular visits are always a welcome addition to our activities, giving residents the chance to spend some time with him and enjoy his company. We look forward to seeing Claude again on his next visit.

The Flamin Ukes

We were pleased to welcome the Flamin Ukes for a musical visit to Oakdene.

Residents enjoyed listening to the ukulele music and spending time together during the performance. It was something a little different for our entertainment programme and an enjoyable visit for everyone.

Music with Angus

Resident Michael and his wife Jane enjoyed watching Angus perform during another of our musical afternoons.

They didn't just sit back and listen, however, as they also joined in by playing the instruments! It was lovely to see them getting involved and enjoying the music together.

Keeping in Touch with Our Pen Pals

Residents have been putting pen to paper and writing to their pen pals at Rowan Park Care Home.

Our pen pal activity gives residents the opportunity to keep in touch, exchange news and continue building connections with friends at another home. We look forward to receiving their replies and continuing the correspondence.

Flower Arranging

Residents showed off their creative side during our recent flower arranging session.

Everyone had the opportunity to create their own arrangement, with the finished displays adding plenty of colour around the home.

Well done to everyone who took part. The arrangements looked beautiful and certainly helped brighten up our surroundings.

COMING UP

Looking Ahead...

As we continue through autumn, we look forward to more music, creative activities, baking and opportunities for residents to spend time together.

We will also be looking forward to Claude's fortnightly visits and continuing our correspondence with our pen pals at Rowan Park Care Home.
